YESTERDAY. - The weather yesterday was mild, though cloudy, and the attendance at the | ing. churches rather smaller than usual. All the pulpits in the city but that of the M. P. Church. in which Rev. Mr. Sweet, of Georgetown, preached in the morning, were occupied by the resident clergy. The following is a report of the work done during the day by the Young Men's Christian Association: "The Alms House services were largely attended, several penitents seeking the Saviour, a full band of workers present, and encouraged in their work. The Sunday Prayer Meeting at the Baptist Church had a large and interested congregation present at the exercises. The pastor of the church gave a most excellent address upon the efficacy of earnest, believing, importunate prayer, and illustrated by giving an instance in his own college experience. The regular exercises were held at the jail, and a good force of members were present. The meeting was of more than usual interest, and the presence of the Holy Spirit seemed clearly manifested. The reading matter so kindly contributed by friends was in part distributed, and was gladly received by the prisoners. The association has excellent opportunities for distributing religious reading matter, and will gladly dispose of any that may be left with the general secre-

ALEXANDRIA AND FREDERICKSBURG RAIL-ROAD. -The late prevailing bad weather has intertered considerably with operations on the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad, but every possible advantage is taken of the good spells and the work is pushed forward as rapidly as circumstances will admit. The large force employed in the construction of the bridge over Occoquan bay did not rest yesterday, and it is now said that that bridge will be completed by the middle of January. The track will be laid to this end of that bridge during the current

SUIT .- In the Court of Appeals at Rich mond on Saturday, upon the petition of Thos. Huntingdon and wife, an appeal was allowed from a decree pronounced by the Circuit Court of Alexandria county on the 24th day of February, 1870, in a suit in which the petitioners were plaintiffs, and David G. Watkins was defendant. Penalty of appeal bond $150. D. L. Smoot counsel for appellants.

SPORTING EXPEDITION.—The Messrs. Reeves, of Washington, with some friends from that city, left here this morning on the sloop Irvin, Captain Jones, which they had chartered for the purpose, on a sporting expedition to the creeks of the lower Potomae. The party expect to be absent for some time, and went amply prepared for emergencies.

LAY DELEGATE .-- At the fourth Quarterly Conference Meeting, held last Wednesday, Mr. Wm. N. Berkley was elected the Lay Delegate from this station, M. E. Church, to the Electoral Conference, which will meet in Leesburg, Va., on the 21st February next, at the same time that the Virginia Annual Conference will be in session.

MARKET HOUSE STEEPLE FUND. -All the lists that were circulated for subscriptions to the fund for the erection of the market house steeple have been handed in to Mr. George Bryan, and aggregate the sum of $3,664. Efforts will at once be instituted to raise $1,336 -the sum required to make that already subscribed available.

LOST COW FOUND. - A valuable cow belonging to Mr. R. F. Roberts, at Cameron Mills, near the city, which had been missing for a week past, was discovered yesterday in an almost perished condition, concealed in a large straw rick. She had gone into a hole made in the side of the rick and been caught there by the falling of the straw above her.

GAME IN THE CITY. -The Gazette has heretofore this fall noticed the appearance of flocks of partridges in the city, and the catching of two coons at the ferry slip whatf. It this evening mentions that Mr. Ridgeway, the agent of Knox's express, caught an o'possum in his yard last night.

SAFELY CONFINED.-Alfred J. Hall, the convict whose attempt to escape in this city, while in transitu to the penitentiary, was noticed in the Gazette last week, was safely secured in that prison, notwithstanding his assertion that he would never be locked up there

KING STREET .- On Saturday night last, King street, our principal thoroughfare, presented the appearance of a new Broadway. From one end to the other people thronged the sidewalks, and the stores all looked as though they were doing a good business. The greatest throng, however, was in front of Green's Notion House to witness the gorgeous display of Holiday Goods in the brilliantly illuminated show windows of this large establishment.
